Snow White

By J. Michael Straczynski

Directed by Missy Freels

This humorous take on a classic tale includes a bumbling prince, a busy-body mirror and not just one, but three attempts on Snow White's life. Add dwarfs (seven of course) and a happily ever after ending and you have a great play for all ages. Auditions are Monday January 4th and Tuesday January 5th. All auditioners are asked to prepare a memorized monologue no longer than 1 minute in length. Show dates are February 26-28, 2010.

Young Playwrights Project

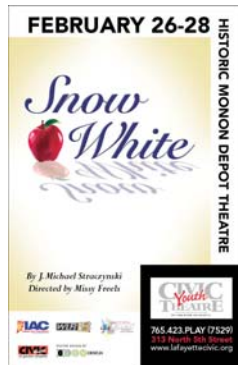

Civic Theatre is proud to bring back the Young Playwrights Project.

Chosen scripts written by the talented youth in our area will be given their world premiere in this ambitious project. A selection committee will choose the winning scripts from a 14 county region. Each chosen writer will be given the opportunity to have their script with a published playwright and see a fully realized production on the Civic Stage. For more information regarding script guidelines, please visit our website: www.lafayettetheatre.org.

2010 Summer Camps

This year we will be presenting Annie Jr. Camp dates are June 26th-July 23th, with performances on July 23, 24th and 25th. Due to the popularity of the camp performance, we have added one additional matinee on Saturday afternoon. Also, camp registrations will not be taken until March 1st. It will be based on a first-come, first-served basis. If the camp fills up, we will have a waiting list for interested persons. We will also need tech crew members for the last week of camp, so if you are not an actor, but would like to participate, this could be a great job for you.

In addition to the 4-week camp, we will offer one week camps for kindergarten-6th grade.

There are a limited number of scholarships available for all classes and camps.
