

SCENE 4

(INSIDE JIM'S GAS STATION)

(NATALIE examines CHAD'S motorcycle)

NATALIE

So you said she was makin' what kind of sound?

CHAD

Jiggily-wiggily. Any hope you can fix her soon? Took the last fella 'bout four days to get her back on the road --

NATALIE

Oh, I can fix any bike in an hour.

CHAD

Really? How'd you learn to do that?

NATALIE

I've always loved motorbikes. And, well, my mom passed on, and I just seemed to spend more and more time in my dad's garage, so -

CHAD

Wow, a gal who's good with a wrench.

NATALIE

Is that something you find attractive?

CHAD

Sure, little darlin' -

(NATALIE begins to giggle, a little too much)

NATALIE

Could you hand me that rag?

(CHAD holds up the rag. It's a crumpled-up dress sporting a large grease stain)

CHAD

Ain't this like a dress?
